

Streets Roots Rag

By Richard Colombo

©Richard Colombo

There's a cool paper here in Portland Town
Called Street Roots News and it's community bound
Helpin' good folks get back up on their feet
Pick up your Street Roots Rag
Make a friend with the vendor you meet

Yeah they know what's like to be down on your luck
So dig down in your pockets it cost just a buck
And while you're at it buy an extra two or three
Pick up your Street Roots Rag
For your friends and your family

You can find the vendors out every day come rain or shine
With award winning news and social justice in every line
And some hope and belief for some much-needed peace of mind
To end poverty and homelessness for all of human kind

The vendors are the nicest folks your gonna meet
They sure know how it feels to be out on the street
Let kindness show the way in sweet generosity
Pickup your Street Roots Rag
You're really gonna dig the poetry

You can find them on the corner in your neighborhood
When your out of coffee strollin' your brotherhood
Treat them to a muffin cappuccino latte or tea
Pick up your Street Roots Rag
Spread the love in our community

You can find the vendor out every day come rain or shine
With award winning news and social justice in every line
And some hope and belief in some much-needed peace of mind
To end poverty and homelessness for all of humankind.

There's a cool paper here in Portland Town
Called Street Roots News and it's community bound
Helpin' good folks get back up on their feet
Pick up your Street Roots Rag
Make a friend with the vendor you meet
Pick up your Street Roots Rag
Make a friend with the vendor you meet
Pick up your Street Roots Rag
Make a friend with the vendor you meet