Farewell my gentle traveler
May all your dreams come true
As you leave in the morning light
My thoughts will go with you

Farewell my strong and trusting friend
May good fortune guide you on your way
Through the changes and the shifting tides
I'll love you til my dying day

Farewell my friend so long my beautiful
Be well as you travel down life's highway
Farewell my sweet goodbye my love
May we meet again another day

Farewell my seeker of distant shores
May your songs be filled with harmony
Through the ever changing seasons
May you always be happy and free

Farewell my friend so long my beautiful
Be well as you travel down life's highway
Farewell my sweet goodbye my love
May we meet again another day

Farewell my gentle traveler
May all your dreams come true
As you leave in the morning light
My thoughts will go with you
As you leave in the morning light
My love.... will go..... with you..... Oooohh.....
