Hold on to your dreams
Keep them alive
Hold on to your dreams
Help them survive
The storms will rage against them
Do their best to wash them away
Wash them away
Keep in sight your vision
Live at what you love every day

Hold on to your dreams
Believe in who you are
Hold on to your dreams
You will travel so far
The path you choose is yours alone
No one can decide what's right for you
What's right for you
Keep in sight your vision
Live at what you love to do

Throw away your fears
You don't need them anymore
Bury them forever
Walk through that door
Live your dreams
Let your spirit fly
Live your dreams
Don't let them die

Hold on to your dreams
Let the mystery unfold
Hold on to your dreams
Let your story be told
Your dreams are woven in your tapestry

The threads are thin but together they are strong
Yes they are strong
Keep in sight your vision
You will find the place where you belong
Hold on to your dreams Ooooh, Oooh
Hold on to your dreams
